Narrative

I responded to the residence and spoke to Priscilla Rodd and [REDACTED] in reference to an incident that took place earlier in the day at approximately 1100 hours while [REDACTED] was walking downtown with some of her friends. They advised that while walking near the intersection of Washington & George Streets, her and her friends came into contact with an individual identified as Raymond Staubs. There is a brief history of incidents between the [REDACTED] and Mr. Staubs. [REDACTED] explained that while walking today, her and Staubs had a brief interaction that was solely verbal in nature and no threatening remarks were made. However, Staubs did allegedly make comments about [REDACTED] sexual orientation and also suggested she take his advice about marrying a man and being a good wife. Rodd and [REDACTED] expressed concern over [REDACTED] being a juvenile and being recorded by Staubs as she was walking past and away from him. However, I explained to them that this act was not a violation of law as they were on a public sidewalk and there was no expectation of privacy. They requested the matter be documented and I advised them that would be done. Therefore, this narrative is for informational purposes should it be needed for reference in the future. No further law enforcement investigation will be conducted as it appears there was no crime committed by either party during the encounter.
